TEACHERS AND AUTHORITIES

Teachers should:

- Discharge their professional responsibilities according to existing rules and adhere to procedures and methods consistent with their profession in initiating steps through their own institutional bodies and professional organizations for change of any such rule detrimental to the professional interest.
- Refrain from taking any other employment and commitment including private tuitions and coaching classes which are likely to interfere with their professional responsibilities.
- Cooperate in formation of policies of the institution by accepting various offices and discharge responsibilities which offices may demand.
- Cooperate through their organization in the formulation of policies of other institutions and accept offices.
- Cooperate with authorities in betterment of the institution keeping in view the interest and in conformity with dignity of profession.
- Should adhere to conditions of contract.
- Give and expect due notice before change of position is made.
- Refrain from availing themselves of leave except on unavoidable grounds and as far as practicable with prior intimation keeping in view their particular responsibility for completion of academic schedule.

TEACHERS AND NON TEACHING STAFF

Teachers should:

- Teachers should treat non teaching staff as colleagues and equal partners in a cooperative undertaking within every educational institution.
- Teachers should help in the function of joint staff councils covering both teachers and non teaching staff.

TEACHERS AND GUARDIAN

Teachers should:

- Try to see through teachers bodies and organizations that institutions maintain contact with guardians, their students, send reports of their performances to the guardians whenever necessary and meet the guardians in meeting convened for the purpose of mutual exchange of ideas and for the benefit of institution.

TEACHERS AND SOCIETY

Teachers should:

- Recognize that education is a public service and strive to keep the public informed of the educational programmes which are being provided.
- Work to improve education in the community and strengthen the community moral and intellectual life.
- Be aware of social problem and take part in such activities as would be conducive to progress of society and country as a whole.
- Perform duties of citizenship, participate in community activities and shoulder responsibility of public offices.
- Refrain from taking part in or subscribing to or assisting in any way activities which tend to promote feeling of hatred or enmity among different communities, religions or linguistic groups but actively work for national integration.
