Gurukul Mahila Arts and Commerce College, Porbandar, introduced a comprehensive short-term course titled "Havan & Vedam" under the guidance of Ms. Aditi D. Dave from the English department from the academic year 2019-2020. The course, spanning over fifteen weeks, delved into the profound significance of Havan and Vedam in Vedic traditions. Beginning with an exploration of Havan's rituals and Vedam's historical context, students gradually progressed through the course, gaining insights into Vedic mantras, their meanings, and proper pronunciation. Practical aspects, such as conducting Vedic havan ceremonies and twilight prayers, were emphasized, with hands-on practice sessions integrated into the curriculum. Additionally, the course covered advanced topics like Brahma Yagya, Dev Yagya, and specific mantras used during various rituals. Furthermore, students were introduced to devotional hymns, praises, and devotional songs, culminating in an exam and practical demonstration to assess their understanding and proficiency in the course material. Through this course, students acquired a deep understanding of Vedic rituals and spiritual practices, equipping them with valuable knowledge and skills in Havan and Vedam.
