Subject: Appointment Letter

To: Ms Ananya Muru

With reference to your application for the post of Librarian, We are pleased to offer you an appointment for the mentioned post for regular basis.

Your offer is being made on the basis of advertisement given by your application. All the information provided by you in form to be filled after advertisement will be considered forthwith and further legal action taken against you if you cheat.

Your employment is subject to the general terms and conditions of employment of the institute currently in force and as amended for the management from time to time in addition to the following special conditions:

1. You will assume your duty as soon as possible.
2. You will have to sign a 1 Year Bond with the Institute.
3. Your 1st month salary will remain as Deposit with the college. Your salary will be given back to you once you resign from your duties after providing 3 Months' Notice in advance.
4. As a member of the teaching staff you shall observe the working hours specified and carry out the teaching work and other duties assigned to you by the management. Your teaching work shall be in relation to your department and other training programs conducted by the institute and it shall include the workload for teaching in terms of lectures and tutorials. You shall also attend in-service training programs during working days. Holidays of vacation as required by the management.
5. Your employment is full time and does not permit you to take Part-time employment outside college premises.
6. Institute working hours are: 8:30 A.M to 5:00 P.M.
7. You will be entitled to 12 CL/EL/ML per year as per institute rules. All year of leave shall have to be approved in advance via leave Report.
8. If you desire to seek employment elsewhere, you must apply through the Principal.
9. In case you want to leave the job you will be required to follow the procedure laid down by the institute i.e. you shall be required give 3 months' notice provided that such notice shall not end in the middle of an academic term. In case however if you fail to do so management is entitled to claim from you an amount equivalent to the salary and allowances as may be available to you for the notice period.
10. The management of the institute reserves the right to alter the terms and conditions pertaining to employment at the institute. The amended terms shall in all cases apply to your employment with the institute.
11. You will be permitted to pursue further studies with prior written permission of the Management.
12. You are required to observe the dress code as decided by the management from time to time.

LETTER OF APPOINTMENT AS A CONTRACTUAL LECTURER

Dear Ms. Pallavi Pathak,

Through this letter of appointment, we are pleased to inform you of your employment as a Teacher at Gurukul Mahila Arts & Commerce College, Porbandar. Your joining date will be 30/10/2017 and you will report to Principal. Your terms and conditions of service with us are as below:

1. Your employment shall begin from 30/10/2017. You will perform such duties and teach Commerce as determined by the Trust and your Principal.
2. You will be on a probationary period of one year from the date of joining. The period of probation may be extended by the Trust for a further period of one year. Unless it is confirmed in writing, it is deemed that your probation period is extended.
3. Subject to the acceptable performance of your duties and obligations as herein specified and mentioned in the attached Job Description, the Trust shall during the continuance of your employment, pay you as per rules and regulations. During the probation period, you will be paid a consolidated monthly salary of 7000/-. Taxes, including professional tax if any, shall be deducted from your salary as per government rules. You will be eligible for increments as per the policy of the Trust.
4. You will be required to work for 18 hours per week. In addition, your presence will be required for mandatorily prescribed College functions, which shall form part of your duties.
5. If your work and conduct during the period of probation or extended period of probation is not found satisfactory, your services are liable to be terminated without notice before the expiry of the period of probation. The sole judge of the satisfactory completion of the probation will be the Trust.
6. You shall, during your service with the College, be eligible to leave according to the policy of the Trust and in keeping with trust rules as applicable to the College. It must be understood that sanction of leave applications is subject to the exigencies of the College and that leave is not claimable as a matter of right but may be granted at the discretion of the College. During the probation period, you will be eligible for 12 days

- of casual leave per academic year or pro rata for the period served by you, and for no other form of leave during the probation period.
7. You shall not on any pretence absent yourself from duties without first having obtained the permission of the Principal or in the case of sickness or accident, without forwarding a medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Principal.
 8. During your employment with the College, you shall be liable to disciplinary action in accordance with the Rules and Regulations framed by the College and the Trust, as will be applicable from time to time. Such disciplinary action may be required for any act of insubordination, intemperance or other misconduct, or the commission of an act, which constitutes a criminal offence or of any breach of non-performance of duties or any of the provisions of those present or of any rules pertaining to the conduct of the College.
 9. If you are suspended from duty during investigation into any charge of your conduct mentioned in clause above, you shall not be entitled to any pay during such period of suspension.
 10. The Governing Body of the College may terminate your service as provided for in the College rules by giving one month notice in writing or by paying a sum equivalent to 1 month salary.
 11. You shall apply yourself honestly, diligently and efficiently under the orders and instructions of the College and your Principal, under whom you shall be placed as a teacher at the College and you shall discharge all duties pertaining to that office and/or which are necessary to be done in your capacity as aforesaid and will make yourself in all respects, generally as useful as may be required of you and shall always act in paramount interest of the institution.
 12. You shall conform to all the rules and regulations in force in the College and shall carry out all such orders and directions as you shall, from time to time, receive from the College and your Head of the department or any of the authorised member of the staff.
 13. You shall not apply or appear for interview etc. for any job outside the College without the prior written permission of the authorised officer of the College. If you have already applied for another job before joining this College, it will be your duty to inform the Principal at the time of appointment and seek his/her written permission, if you are required to appear for an interview at a later date.

14. You shall not engage in private tuition or private teaching activities as such prohibition on private tuition is given in Sec. 28 of the Right To Education Act 2009.
15. This employment is a full-time job and you shall devote your whole time to duties assigned and shall not on your own account or otherwise directly or indirectly carry on or be concerned in any trade or business whatsoever which is likely to interfere with the due and efficient discharge of your College duties under this agreement or to be otherwise prejudicial to the interest of the College.
16. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this letter of appointment, including any disciplinary action leading to the dismissal or removal from service or reduction in rank etc. shall be referred to the Provost, Arya Kanya Vidyalaya Trust, Porbandar.
17. We welcome you and hope your association with us will be a long and happy one. You are requested to return the duplicate copy of this letter of appointment duly signed in token of your acceptance.

During the probation period, you will be paid a consolidated monthly salary of 7000/-. Taxes, including professional tax if any, shall be deducted from your salary as per government rules. You will be eligible for increments as per the policy of the Trust.
4. You will be required to work for 18 hours per week. In addition, your presence will be required for mandatorily prescribed College functions, which shall form part of your duties.
5. If your work and conduct during the period of probation or extended period of probation is not found satisfactory, your services are liable to be terminated without notice before the expiry of the period of probation. The sole judge of the satisfactory completion of the probation will be the Trust.
6. You shall, during your service with the College, be eligible to leave according to the policy of the Trust and in keeping with trust rules as applicable to the College. It must be understood that sanction of leave applications is subject to the exigencies of the College and that leave is not claimable as a matter of right but may be granted at the discretion of the College. During the probation period, you will be eligible for 12 days

- of casual leave per academic year or pro rata for the period served by you, and for no other form of leave during the probation period.
7. You shall not on any pretence absent yourself from duties without first having obtained the permission of the Principal or in the case of sickness or accident, without forwarding a medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Principal.
 8. During your employment with the College, you shall be liable to disciplinary action in accordance with the Rules and Regulations framed by the College and the Trust, as will be applicable from time to time. Such disciplinary action may be required for any act of insubordination, intemperance or other misconduct, or the commission of an act, which constitutes a criminal offence or of any breach of non-performance of duties or any of the provisions of those present or of any rules pertaining to the conduct of the College.
 9. If you are suspended from duty during investigation into any charge of your conduct mentioned in clause above, you shall not be entitled to any pay during such period of suspension.
 10. The Governing Body of the College may terminate your service as provided for in the College rules by giving one month notice in writing or by paying a sum equivalent to 1 month salary.
 11. You shall apply yourself honestly, diligently and efficiently under the orders and instructions of the College and your Principal, under whom you shall be placed as a teacher at the College and you shall discharge all duties pertaining to that office and/or which are necessary to be done in your capacity as aforesaid and will make yourself in all respects, generally as useful as may be required of you and shall always act in paramount interest of the institution.
 12. You shall conform to all the rules and regulations in force in the College and shall carry out all such orders and directions as you shall, from time to time, receive from the College and your Head of the department or any of the authorised member of the staff.
 13. You shall not apply or appear for interview etc. for any job outside the College without the prior written permission of the authorised officer of the College. If you have already applied for another job before joining this College, it will be your duty to inform the Principal at the time of appointment and seek his/her written permission, if you are required to appear for an interview at a later date.

14. You shall not engage in private tuition or private teaching activities as such prohibition on private tuition is given in Sec. 28 of the Right To Education Act 2009.
15. This employment is a full-time job and you shall devote your whole time to duties assigned and shall not on your own account or otherwise directly or indirectly carry on or be concerned in any trade or business whatsoever which is likely to interfere with the due and efficient discharge of your College duties under this agreement or to be otherwise prejudicial to the interest of the College.
16. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this letter of appointment, including any disciplinary action leading to the dismissal or removal from service or reduction in rank etc. shall be referred to the Provost, Arya Kanya Vidyalaya Trust, Porbandar.
17. We welcome you and hope your association with us will be a long and happy one. You are requested to return the duplicate copy of this letter of appointment duly signed in token of your acceptance.

You will be eligible for increments as per the policy of the Trust.
4. You will be required to work for 18 hours per week. In addition, your presence will be required for mandatorily prescribed College functions, which shall form part of your duties.
5. If your work and conduct during the period of probation or extended period of probation is not found satisfactory, your services are liable to be terminated without notice before the expiry of the period of probation. The sole judge of the satisfactory completion of the probation will be the Trust.
6. You shall, during your service with the College, be eligible to leave according to the policy of the Trust and in keeping with trust rules as applicable to the College. It must be understood that sanction of leave applications is subject to the exigencies of the College and that leave is not claimable as a matter of right but may be granted at the discretion of the College. During the probation period, you will be eligible for 12 days

- of casual leave per academic year or pro rata for the period served by you, and for no other form of leave during the probation period.
7. You shall not on any pretence absent yourself from duties without first having obtained the permission of the Principal or in the case of sickness or accident, without forwarding a medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Principal.
 8. During your employment with the College, you shall be liable to disciplinary action in accordance with the Rules and Regulations framed by the College and the Trust, as will be applicable from time to time. Such disciplinary action may be required for any act of insubordination, intemperance or other misconduct, or the commission of an act, which constitutes a criminal offence or of any breach of non-performance of duties or any of the provisions of those present or of any rules pertaining to the conduct of the College.
 9. If you are suspended from duty during investigation into any charge of your conduct mentioned in clause above, you shall not be entitled to any pay during such period of suspension.
 10. The Governing Body of the College may terminate your service as provided for in the College rules by giving one month notice in writing or by paying a sum equivalent to 1 month salary.
 11. You shall apply yourself honestly, diligently and efficiently under the orders and instructions of the College and your Principal, under whom you shall be placed as a teacher at the College and you shall discharge all duties pertaining to that office and/or which are necessary to be done in your capacity as aforesaid and will make yourself in all respects, generally as useful as may be required of you and shall always act in paramount interest of the institution.
 12. You shall conform to all the rules and regulations in force in the College and shall carry out all such orders and directions as you shall, from time to time, receive from the College and your Head of the department or any of the authorised member of the staff.
 13. You shall not apply or appear for interview etc. for any job outside the College without the prior written permission of the authorised officer of the College. If you have already applied for another job before joining this College, it will be your duty to inform the Principal at the time of appointment and seek his/her written permission, if you are required to appear for an interview at a later date.

14. You shall not engage in private tuition or private teaching activities as such prohibition on private tuition is given in Sec. 28 of the Right To Education Act 2009.
15. This employment is a full-time job and you shall devote your whole time to duties assigned and shall not on your own account or otherwise directly or indirectly carry on or be concerned in any trade or business whatsoever which is likely to interfere with the due and efficient discharge of your College duties under this agreement or to be otherwise prejudicial to the interest of the College.
16. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this letter of appointment, including any disciplinary action leading to the dismissal or removal from service or reduction in rank etc. shall be referred to the Provost, Arya Kanya Vidyalaya Trust, Porbandar.
17. We welcome you and hope your association with us will be a long and happy one. You are requested to return the duplicate copy of this letter of appointment duly signed in token of your acceptance.

During the probation period, you will be paid a consolidated monthly salary of 5000/-. Taxes, including professional tax if any, shall be deducted from your salary as per government rules. You will be eligible for increments as per the policy of the Trust.
4. You will be required to work for 12 hours per week. In addition, your presence will be required for mandatorily prescribed College functions, which shall form part of your duties.
5. If your work and conduct during the period of probation or extended period of probation is not found satisfactory, your services are liable to be terminated without notice before the expiry of the period of probation. The sole judge of the satisfactory completion of the probation will be the Trust.
6. You shall, during your service with the College, be eligible to leave according to the policy of the Trust and in keeping with trust rules as applicable to the College. It must be understood that sanction of leave applications is subject to the exigencies of the College and that leave is not claimable as a matter of right but may be granted at the discretion of the College. During the probation period, you will be eligible for 12 days

- of casual leave per academic year or pro rata for the period served by you, and for no other form of leave during the probation period.
7. You shall not on any pretence absent yourself from duties without first having obtained the permission of the Principal or in the case of sickness or accident, without forwarding a medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Principal.
 8. During your employment with the College, you shall be liable to disciplinary action in accordance with the Rules and Regulations framed by the College and the Trust, as will be applicable from time to time. Such disciplinary action may be required for any act of insubordination, intemperance or other misconduct, or the commission of an act, which constitutes a criminal offence or of any breach of non-performance of duties or any of the provisions of those present or of any rules pertaining to the conduct of the College.
 9. If you are suspended from duty during investigation into any charge of your conduct mentioned in clause above, you shall not be entitled to any pay during such period of suspension.
 10. The Governing Body of the College may terminate your service as provided for in the College rules by giving one month notice in writing or by paying a sum equivalent to 1 month salary.
 11. You shall apply yourself honestly, diligently and efficiently under the orders and instructions of the College and your Principal, under whom you shall be placed as a teacher at the College and you shall discharge all duties pertaining to that office and/or which are necessary to be done in your capacity as aforesaid and will make yourself in all respects, generally as useful as may be required of you and shall always act in paramount interest of the institution.
 12. You shall conform to all the rules and regulations in force in the College and shall carry out all such orders and directions as you shall, from time to time, receive from the College and your Head of the department or any of the authorised member of the staff.
 13. You shall not apply or appear for interview etc. for any job outside the College without the prior written permission of the authorised officer of the College. If you have already applied for another job before joining this College, it will be your duty to inform the Principal at the time of appointment and seek his/her written permission, if you are required to appear for an interview at a later date.

14. You shall not engage in private tuition or private teaching activities as such prohibition on private tuition is given in Sec. 28 of the Right To Education Act 2009.
15. This employment is a full-time job and you shall devote your whole time to duties assigned and shall not on your own account or otherwise directly or indirectly carry on or be concerned in any trade or business whatsoever which is likely to interfere with the due and efficient discharge of your College duties under this agreement or to be otherwise prejudicial to the interest of the College.
16. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this letter of appointment, including any disciplinary action leading to the dismissal or removal from service or reduction in rank etc. shall be referred to the Provost, Arya Kanya Vidyalaya Trust, Porbandar.
17. We welcome you and hope your association with us will be a long and happy one. You are requested to return the duplicate copy of this letter of appointment duly signed in token of your acceptance.
