In the context of the transformative changes being introduced in the Indian education system under the New Education Policy–2020, Gurukul Mahila College organized a weekly online Faculty Development Programme on the theme "Multidisciplinary Educational Tradition" with the objective of enabling all faculty members to become well-informed about this evolving system. The Programme was organized by the IQAC of the college.

As part of this Programme, eminent academicians from Gujarat delivered expert sessions. On the first day, Prof. Dr. Manish Rawal from the Department of Commerce, Kundaliya Mahila College, Rajkot, conducted an insightful session on "Click Wisely; Leave Wisely; Live Wisely". He elaborated on the proper use and misuse of mobile phones.

On the second day, Dr. Ramesh Mehta, Trustee of Rupayatan Sanstha, Junagadh, and a retired professor, delivered a lecture on "Literature and Indianness". He explained the deep connection between Indian culture and literature, the true meaning of "Indianness," and elaborated on the concepts of Satyam, Shivam, Sundaram, along with defining the essence of Indian literature.

On the third day, Dr. Vishal Joshi, Professor of History, presented his reflections on "Girnar: The Centre of Sanatan Culture". He provided engaging insights into Girnar as a spiritual hub, its associated धार्मिक sites, akhadas, sages, as well as its rich biodiversity of plants and medicinal herbs, highlighting its significance in Sanatan culture.

Subsequently, Prof. and Head Dr. Dilip Bard from the Department of English, Maharaja Krishnakumarsinhji University, Bhavnagar, delivered a session on "Technology Enabled Teaching". He guided faculty on integrating technology effectively in education, introduced useful teaching applications and tools, and shared eye-opening insights on creating and updating blogs and websites.

Dr. Ashish Goravadiya from the Department of Commerce, Amreli College, spoke on "Jab Koi Nahi Tha Tab Hum The" in the context of the Indian Knowledge System. Through various examples, he highlighted India's glorious past, the importance of ancient literature, and discussed ways to strengthen the Indian Knowledge System.

On another day, Jignesh Chelavda conducted a session on "New Food Practices" under the theme of a healthy India. He discussed the rising fast-food culture and its health impacts, and explained how adopting healthier food practices, including fasting, green vegetables, and fruits, can lead to a disease-free life.

On the concluding day of the week, a lecture on "Stress Management and Mental Health" was organized by Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya, Porbandar. Brahma Kumari Leenadidi, Brahma Kumari Komaldidi, along with Dr. Ramesh Kotecha (UK), Smt. Ramaben Kotecha, and Pannaben were specially present. Brahma Kumari Komaldidi spoke about the immense power of the mind, its awareness, and how students can develop mental strength to build their careers, along with maintaining mental health. Brahma Kumari Leenadidi elaborated on the causes of stress, methods of self-control through Rajyoga, and ways to attain freedom from mental stress. She also conducted a meditation session and interacted with participants. At the end, prasad was distributed to all attendees.

The Faculty Development Programme was conducted under the inspiration, encouragement, and guidance of the Principal, Dr. Anupam Nagar. On the valedictory occasion, Dr. Nagar highlighted the objectives of the FDP, explained the concepts of a devotee (Bhakta) and a knowledgeable person (Gyani), and delivered an insightful address on the importance of knowledge and discipline in life, citing the example of John Milton's epic Paradise Lost.

The entire Programme was effectively coordinated by IQAC Coordinator Dr. Arfat Saiyad. The efforts of Dr. Nayan Tank, Coordinator of the College Development Cell, ensured the smooth organization and availability of expert sessions. The sessions were anchored by Kum. Aditi Dave, and all faculty members contributed by introducing the speakers, delivering votes of thanks, and presenting summaries of the sessions.

Overall, the Faculty Development Programme truly upheld and reflected the essence of a multidisciplinary educational approach.
